

GLOBAL SPEAKER AND SYNTHESISER!

In today's fast-paced and ever-changing world, understanding and harnessing the power of human potential has become more crucial than ever. Sue Langley is a remarkable individual who has dedicated her life to this pursuit.

Sue is the founder and CEO of the Langley Group and the Academic Director of the Langley Group Institute. Sue's passion for positive psychology, emotional intelligence and neuroscience and her unwavering belief in the ability of individuals to thrive and flourish have made her a prominent figure in the field.

The Langley Group is a consultancy specialising in transforming organisations and their people through the science of human flourishing. Sue's experience shows that the theoretical understanding and practical application of neuroscience, emotional intelligence and positive psychology research will inspire leaders and teams to build positive cultures and optimal performance.

Sue's innovative approach to unlocking human potential has garnered widespread recognition. Her expertise and thought leadership have taken her across the globe, where she has delivered keynote speeches, workshops, and consulting services to organisations in diverse industries. Her work has influenced leaders, professionals, and educators, inspiring them to embrace a more positive and strengths-based approach to personal and organisational development.

Through the Langley Group and the Langley Group Institute, Sue Langley has touched the lives of countless individuals, empowering them to unleash their potential and thrive. Sue has helped create environments that nurture wellbeing, resilience, and high performance by equipping organisations with the tools and strategies to foster positive work cultures.

Her success with global businesses has fast seen other organisations follow their lead, and Langley Group's bespoke programmes are now delivered worldwide at all levels. Sue is a Master Trainer for the Mayer-Salovey-Caruso EI Test (MSCEIT), the Strengths Profile and the Work on Wellbeing tool. She holds (among many qualifications) a Master's in the Neuroscience of Leadership.

Sue's unwavering commitment to improving lives reminds us that when we focus on human potential, we unlock a world of possibilities.
